TREMENDOUS RUN, BUT NOT FOR A SPECIE.—The rapidity with which the OIFTS and BOOKS are going off at No. 286 Broadway, is somewhat marvelous in these dull times. The agent, Mr. RANNEY, hode a continual levee from morn till night, and while one set of assistants is answering the increasant call for Forms, Romances, Histories, Traveis, Biographics, Illustrated works, &c., another set is just as bessity employed in bringing in from the jewsity rosm the elegant biouters which is given away with the volumes. The popularity of this admirably conducted enterprise is immense, and seems likely to continue. The establishment is no longer an experiment but a great leading feature in the book trade of the metropolis. TREMENDOUS RUN, BUT NOT FOR
